One strange occurrence can challenge everything you thought you knew

When a woman Lucky John barely knows calls him and asks for help right before the phone goes out, he's left with a set of very mysterious circumstances to unravel. It turns out that, while investigating a series of disappearances tied to a prominent psychic medium in Pismo Beach, Becca Ray went missing herself.

Now Lucky John must head west, both to the Golden State and to the world of Oliver Black, the would be psychic medium at the center of all of us this. In a world where tarot cards tells people what to have for breakfast and people claim to be able to see dead loved ones, John has to find the truth amid a sea of deception.

What he'll uncover is stranger than any adventure he's ever embarked on before, and when the dust settles, the truth will change everything forever...and not just for John.
