when Gregor Samsa woke from troubled dreams; he found himself transformed in his bed into a horrible vermin. He lay on his armour-like back; and if he lifted his head a little he could see his brown belly; slightly domed and divided by arches into stiff sections. The bedding was hardly able to cover it and seemed ready to slide off any moment. His many legs; pitifully thin compared with the size of the rest of him; waved about helplessly as he looked.

"What's happened to me?" he thought. It wasn't a dream. His room; a proper human room although a little too small; lay peacefully between its four familiar walls. A collection of textile samples lay spread out on the table - Samsa was a travelling salesman - and above it there hung a picture that he had recently cut out of an illustrated magazine and housed in a nice; gilded frame. It showed a lady fitted out with a fur hat and fur boa who sat upright; raising a heavy fur muff that covered the whole of her lower arm towards the viewer.
