Trapping was not an easy way to make a living. Dad was often gone for more than a week at a time. He sometimes walked more than 2,000 miles over the course of a winter. Just a pair of wooden snowshoes, an axe, and a backpack.

Walk, don't ride. Savor each minute gradually instead of rushing as fast as you can to get to the next trap. Trapping on foot is hard work. Sometimes it is spooky, like when you're coming in late at night and it's 50 below and dropping. And the stars, they're unnaturally close. Then you see something else....
